Welcome!

Learn About What We do and Our Scholarship Fund

www.FSPAgainstBullying.org
What We Do

Fifty Shades of Purple Against Bullying (FSPAB)

A non-profit, organization supporting children and adults who have been victimized by bullying or abuse. We make bulling prevention and recovery programs and resources available.

We work alongside community-based organizations with anti-bullying initiatives and campaigns.
Everyone DESERVES TO Feel Safe
Some of FSP’s Most Important Goals

Acting as intermediaries by connecting individuals with organizations, tools and resources, as well as follow-up support for victims and their families.

Developing educational tools and programs to increase awareness and encourage prevention in our nation’s schools and the workplace.

Providing rehabilitation tools and resources for the bully/abuser.
Introducing
Dr. Linda Spooner, JD., MD.
Resilience Scholarship!

In Memory of
Dr. Linda Spooner, JD, MD
March 31, 1950 – July 12, 2018

“I continue along this arduous wilderness path, and have had some very high hurdles. But I am most blessed to be RESILIENT!”

Dr. Linda Spooner, JD, MD Resilience Scholarship
Dr. Linda Spooner, JD., MD.

(March 31, 1950 – July 12, 2018)

Epitome of Resilience

- Beloved Board of Directors Vice Chair of FSP 2016-2018
- Board certified in Internal Medicine
- Practiced academic and hospital medicine and had a private practice
- Executive leader in a large health system for 20 years
- Independent consultant to hospitals across the country on quality, compliance, Medicare, and operating requirements
- Leadership and wellness coach
- Graduate of Cornell University, Cornell Law School and Howard University College of Medicine
- Recipient of many awards for leadership and innovation in business and medicine.
- Practiced Law for more than twenty years before pursuing her degree in Medicine.
- CLICK HERE to view Linda’s Speech at the 2013 Mautner Project
How to Apply

Apply for a grant by filling out an application and submitting a short essay or one-minute video through our website.

Children of all ages, Parents, Guidance Personnel, Teachers, Administrators and Charity Partners are all encouraged to apply!

Tell us how you will use the grant to prevent bullying

Review Committee of objective volunteers will select the top five applicants who best reflect our organization’s mission.
Application and Award Process

Step 1 – Complete online Application that includes a short essay (100 words maximum) or submit a short video (1 minute maximum, mp4 format) explaining how you would use the funds to deter or reduce cyber, physical or verbal bullying in your community or school. Electronic Application must be received by November 15, 2021 at midnight.

Step 2 – The Scholarship Review Committee will determine scholarship awards in the amount between $100-$1,000 within 30 days.

Step 3 – Recipients must participate in a virtual Award Ceremony hosted by FSP Against Bullying on December 12, 2021 (Time TBD).
If Our Work Moves You, Here is How You Can Help

Donate - We are happy to accept donations of any amount via our website. Your donation (financial or in-kind) will be used to support our ongoing educational, awareness and resource goals.

Become a Sponsor - We rely on the generosity of corporate sponsors to help us further our ongoing goals.

Volunteer - FSP Against Bullying has many different volunteer opportunities available. There's no better way to use your skill or experience than with an organization that understands the value of your time.
Thank you!

www.FSPAgainstBullying.org